The Pop-Up opens its doors again!

Join us once again this June long weekend as a collective of artists from the Southern Highlands throw open their studio doors for our annual Pop-Up Exhibition. It is a fantastic opportunity for art lovers to delve into the vibrant artistic and cultural scene of the Southern Highlands. Visiting artists in their studios and galleries offers a unique insight into their creative process, enhancing the experience of acquiring artwork.

Over the June long weekend, you can revel in art while exploring everything else the Southern Highlands has in store. While meandering through artistic venues, treat your taste buds to culinary delights, indulge in fine wines at Centennial Vineyards and explore the charming world of boutique shopping. This blend of artistic exploration, gastronomic adventures and boutique discoveries will add a diverse and delightful dimension to your long weekend getaway.

Whether you're an avid art collector, a cultural aficionado, or simply seeking a distinctive and engaging experience, this June long weekend in the Southern Highlands guarantees to be unforgettable. It provides an opportunity to connect with artists, delve into their journeys and creative processes, and perhaps, take home a new artwork imbued with a deeper experience.

Getting Around

See the map for each of the studios that are open on the long weekend. You will see pink and white signs posted up to help guide you to each entrance and where to park. Prefer online? You can find us on our new website! Check out thepopupproject.com.au for all the artists online or use Google maps link you can find it on the home page!

Additional maps are available from the Welcome Centre at Destination Southern Highlands, 62-70 Main Street, Mittagong.

Artist in Residence

Bowral artist ROSA FEDELE is Artist in Residence at Centennial Vineyards during June, taking over the Cellar Door and filling it with her newest collection of DREAM MACHINES & DOGGOS! A whimsical, playful exhibition celebrating vintage cars, Italian scooters, darling dogs and romantic beauties from the silver screen. Visit Rosa every weekend, watch the process as she paints a stunning 1962 Triumph TR4 with the lovely Erin in vintage costume.
