NATALIE WILL

Australian visual artist Natalie Will's current exhibition at Centennial, transcends traditional landscape art and invites exploration into the realms of place, identity, and the natural world. Natalie's innovative approach merges the vibrant energy of contemporary landscapes with the intricate techniques of collage and mixed media, resulting in a visual experience that is both immersive and thought-provoking.

At the heart of Natalie's artistry lies a bold and playful colour pallet that breathe life into her compositions. Each piece serves as a window into a surreal dreamscape, where the abstraction of her imagery encourages viewers to engage with the artwork on a personal level. The interplay of color and form offers just enough familiarity for recognition, while simultaneously allowing each observer to weave their own narrative, creating a unique connection to the work.

In her collage pieces, Natalie meticulously gathers her images from op shops and recycling centers. Drawing inspiration from children's encyclopedias, textbooks, and magazines, she crafts unique compositions that often oscillate between silliness and the obscure.

The Pop-Up Project

The Pop-Up Project was created in 2021 when a group of artists in the beautiful Southern Highlands in NSW wanted to have more opportunities to open their studio doors. We are dedicated to promoting our artists' work and increasing our visibility. The changes and reach we have had in 3 years is phenomenal! From managing our social media presence to organising exhibitions and securing media features, we have helped our artists reach new audiences and opened doors to exciting opportunities.

Networking and collaboration has meant local artists connect and build relevant contacts, we have seen collaborations that have been game-changing. Through our network, we have met fellow artists, industry professionals, and curators who have enriched our artistic journeys. We are growing our network for subsidised professional development. With workshops, masterclasses, and mentorship programs in the pipeline. We are committed to growth and providing resources like studio space and opportunities for development.

We look forward to growing the Pop-Up Project, please support us as we continue to create, inspire, and uplift one another. Together, we can make a lasting impact in the world of art! We hope you enjoy your journey.

Erin has become an Arts and Culture native and a champion of supporting the development of the cultural landscape across our beautiful region. Erin utilises her relationship development skills, research, social media and technologies. With a track record of creating and implementing successful education and development programs, Erin continues to support artists and businesses to create strategies that create and tell their stories.
